CONVERSATION, COMMENTARY AND CHATTER

1. Under a different name and approach, another Chiefs fan club is underway, except this "group" meets at alternating homes to watch the Chiefs' games on television. Included are: Charles and Barbara Wilson, Rich and Juanita Kimse, Eloise and Henry Westbrook, Teenie Stowers, Melvin Johnson, David Wyatt, Willa Sykes, Paulene Byrd, Vivian Groves, George Nunley and Richard Tate.
2. Some of our inner city churches were once located in the downtown area. Allen Chapel A.M.E. and Second Baptist Churches were at 10th and Charlotte. St. Stephen Baptist Church was located at 910 Harrison. Also, there was a Chauffeurs and Maids Club on the southwest corner of 19th and Vine. In the forties, this club was a Thursday night popular spot, according to Eula and Lincoln Taylor.
3. Last April, a Jackson County Legislature appointed task force was asked to review and make recommendations for changes in the Community Backed Anti-Drug Tax Program here in Jackson County. Headed by local attorney Bill Session, the committee will present its report sometime next week. Other committee members include Dr. Stacey Daniels (Kauffman Foundation), Bill Clark (Urban League); Jonathan Kemper (Commerce Bank); Dr. Garrison (UMKC); Mary Ellen Miller (Federation of Flight Attendants); Ron Wade (Arthur Andersen); and John McKelvey (Midwest Research Institute).
