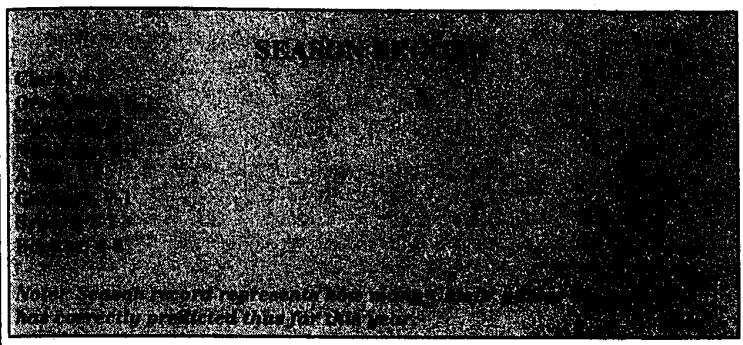
Chatter, Conversation & Commentary



1. The Chiefs have rushed for 150 yards or more in three straight games a feat last accomplished by the running back Joe Delaney-led team in 1981.
2. Martin Bayless was the Chargers starting strong safety from 1987-91. During that time, he collected 355 tackles, three interceptions, 7.5 sacks and five fumble recoveries in 73 games (63 starts).
3. The Chargers (4-5) have most four of their last five, but play four of their next five games at home.
4. The Chiefs have made 12 of 14 (.857) fourth-down conversion tries.
5. The Chiefs 8-1 start is their best since a 9-1 beginning during the 1969 season, when the club won Super Bowl IV. The Chiefs have won five straight games for the first time under Marty Schottenheimer, and for the first time in a single season since 1971.
6. Anyone seeking treatment can call Jim Nunnelly at 881-3814 or the COMBAT lines at 842-COMBT.
7. Marcus Allen, now in his 14th NFL season, remains the team's rushing leader with 109 carries for 465 yards and three scores. The Chiefs solid offensive line is allowing just one sack every 26.8 dropbacks, the fifth-best average in the league.
8. Tracy Simien, who has been the club's tackle leader the past three seasons, is tops on the squad again this year with 71. Tamarick Vanover is the AFC's leading kick-off returner (25.8 yards) and fourth in punt return average (10.7).
9. The Chargers' defense is led by Leslie O'Neal (6.5) sacks), Junior Seau (four Pro Bowls), Shaun Gayle (over 700 career tackles) and Chris Mims (11 sacks in 1994).
