Summary Of Headline Events In 1967

JANUARY

Bruce Watkins, former city councilman, began his duties as Jackson County circuit clerk, Jan. 3, first Negro to hold the office. G. Lawrence Blankinship sworn in as city councilman from the third district to fill vacancy created by resignation of Watkins.

Thirteen Negroes were sworn in as members of the Missouri state legislature, Jan. 4. Kansas Citians were Leon M. Jordan, Harold L. Holliday, Henry Ross, and James Wilson Spencer.

Ford Foundation announced a grant of $300,000 to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Jan. 4.

Julian Bond seated in the Georgia legislature, Jan. 9, following earlier rejection by his House colleagues.

Adam Clayton Powell was stripped of chairmanship of the powerful House education and labor committee, Jan. 10, temporarily denied seat in Congress.

First popular elected Negro Senator, Edward W. Brooke, (R-Mass.) took the oath of office, Jan. 10.

Five Democrats and four Republicans were named, Jan. 19, to judge Adam Clayton Powell's fitness to serve in the 90th Congress.

Wearing a cowboy hat and a pistol strapped around his waist, Lucius Amerson assumed office Jan. 17, as Alabama's first Negro sheriff since reconstruction.

"'Keep The Faith, Baby," record album featuring collection of sermons and speeches by Adam Clayton Powell, went on sale Jan. 23, with the embattled Congressman hoping to use royalties to pay off a $164,000 slander judgement.

Mrs. Gwendolyn Wells, Kansas City attorney, sworn in Jan. 26 as the senior Equal Employment Opportunities officer in the regional office of the federal Equal Employment Opportunity commission.

During the week of Jan. 27, Senator Edward V. Long, announced the appointment of four Negro youths, including two Kansas Citians, Ernest Ray Jennings Jr., and Curtis Jerome Martin to the U. S. Navy and U. S. Air Force academies respectively.

FEBRUARY

A bill was introduced in the Missouri legislature Feb. 1, to increase state welfare payments to mothers of dependent children.

Thirty-two candidates had completed filing requirements for city election posts by the Wednesday, Feb. 1, deadline.

A set of triplets, all girls, were born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Burch, 3709 Woodland, at General hospital, Feb. 1

A New York Negro couple, Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Harris, of Brooklyn, N. Y., became parents of quintuplets, none of whom survived.

Casualty figures in the Vietnam War had exceeded 50,000 by Feb. 2, according to spokesmen of the U. S. Defense department.

A jury of 11 Negroes, six men and five women, and one white woman, found former U.S. Senate aid Robert G. (Bobby) Baker, guilty, Jan. 29, of evading more than $22,000 and other counts.

Dr. and Mrs. Archie M. Claytor, prominent Negro physician and wife of Saginaw, Mich., were found mysteriously bludgeoned, bound and shot to death. Three days later, about a mile away, the brutal slaying of an elderly white couple was discovered and linked to the Claytor deaths. Two men were arrested and charged with first degree murder in both cases.

A large delegation from local poverty areas went by chartered bus to Jefferson City, Feb. 13, to attend a hearing on the ADC-U bill being considered by the Missouri legislature.

The Defense department in Washington reported in February that the death rate in Vietnam for 1966 was proportionately higher for Negroes than for white servicemen. Of 4,557 Americans killed in Vietnam in the first 11 months of 1966, 16.3 per cent were Negroes, who, made up at the time, 10.2 per cent of total American population.

A special House committee declared Feb. 23, that Adam Clayton Powell was guilty of "gross misconduct," and recommended that he should be seated in Congress but punished by censure and a $40,000 fine.

President Johnson, in his annual message to Congress, asked the legislators to enact a seven-point civil rights package, including a controversial open housing law in three stages: Immediate prohibition against discrimination in sale or rental of federally financed housing; extension of the ban in 1968 to dwellings sold or rented by persons other than occupants; and to apartment units for five or more families; a total ban on discrimination in 1969. His message was hailed by national Negro leaders.

Mystery surrounded the deaths of Mrs. Brenda Crumpton and LeRoy McGhee, who were found shot through the head in an apartment at 1614 Linwood. The couple had apparently been dead for several days when their bodies were discovered.

Roy Allison Roberts, 79, former chairman of the board of the Kansas City Star company died at St. Lukes hospital Thursday, Feb. 23. He had served 50 years with the Star, and had been a Washington correspondent and managing editor.

Julian Bond, Georgia legislator, spoke to Kansas Citians Feb. 26, at St. Andrew Methodist church.

Clayton Kimes, 15-year-old Lincoln High student, was awarded a $2,500 scholarship to the Phillips Exeter academy in Exeter, N. H.

A Negro civil rights leader, Wharlest Jackson, 37, of Natchez, was killed Feb. 27, when a bomb shattered his pickup truck. Jackson had been treasurer of the Natchez NAACP branch.

The New York State Court of Appeals overturned a $156,000 fraud judgement against Congressman Powell. The case had grown out of a libel judgement won by Mrs. Esther James.

Bernard B. Fall, on sabbatical leave from Howard university, was killed Feb. 21, while accompanying a U. S. Marine Corps combat unit on patrol in Vietnam.

Dr. Carl Murphy, 78, chairman of the board of directors of the Afro-American newspaper, died Feb. 25, at John Hopkins hospital after a six-day confinement. Dr. Murphy had been president of the Afro newspapers from 1922 until 1961, when he moved to his board post.

MARCH

Howard university observed its 100th year on March 2. James H. Meredith, first Negro to graduate from the University of Mississippi, called forth the wrath of Harlem Democrats and civil rights leaders with his announcement that he would seek the seat denied Adam Clayton Powell. He later withdrew. A month later, Mrs. Lucile Williams replaced Meredith as a candidate.

(Continued on Page 8)

Continued From Front Page

A resolution honoring James H. Wilkinson, coach of the Central High school basketball team was adopted by the Missouri House of Representatives. Wilkinson was commended as a "coach, counselor and leader of youth."

Dick Gregory, comedian and civil rights activist, spoke to about 900 persons here at the University of Missouri at Kansas City about several then-current issues.

The Land Clearance for Redevelopment Authority of Kansas City, Mo., received appropriations of $2,190,659 through the Department of Housing and Urban Renewal for use in the 82.8 acre Manual project.

Edward E. Tillmon, president of the Douglass State Bank and representative of the United Community Fund and Council, was re-elected president of the Economic Opportunity Foundation (EOF) Inc., of Wyandotte County, March 16.

Rites were held March 23, for physician Dr. Lon M. Tillmon, who had practiced in Kansas City for 51 years. He died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Portia J. Powell 2805 Vine, after a month long illness.

Rites for James C. Potter Sr., district manager of the Supreme Life Insurance company, were held March 23, after his death four days previous. He had suffered a five-week illness.

News was received Easter Sunday, March 26, of the death of Cpl. Jodie V. Welch Jr., from fragmentary mortar shell in South Vietnam. The Jodie V. Welch family lives at 1032 Quindaro Blvd.

Muhammed Ali, deposed heavyweight champion, moved to Houston, Tex., and announced plans to make his home there.

Kansas Citians gave a rousing vote of confidence to Mayor Ilus W. Davis and his administration in the March 28 election. Among those re-elected were Dr. Earl D. Thomas and G. Lawrence Blankinship. The losers ranged from John Birchers and anti-segregationists to former city council members who won a place on the general election ballot through write-in votes in the primary.

Adam Clayton Powell won a court fight March 29, to run again for the seat denied him earlier by fellow legislators.

Dr. Martin Luther King and Dr. Benjamin Spock led an estimated 3,000 marchers in a fund-raising and anti-war rally in downtown Chicago, hoping to "combine the fervor of the civil rights movement with the peace movement."

Students protests, sit-in and general unrest, ravaged Texas Southern university at Houston for more than a week, following a school year marked by tension.

The Interscholastic Fieldhouse was the scene of pandemonium March 8, when Central High school Eagles clinched the league basketball title with their win over De La Salle Titans, 85-70. The team was unable to hold the state Class L title won the previous year.

APRIL

During early April the Lay Advisory board of St. Joseph hospital outlined a long-range 30-million dollar program to develop about 25 acres surrounding the hospital at Linwood Boulevard and Prospect avenue as a campus complex and center.

In a hard-fought general election in Kansas City, Kas., Mayor Joseph H. McDowell won his first four-year elective term as Mayor. Peter J. Matson was elected commissioner of finance, health and public property; Hugh P. Doherty was elected Commissioner of Streets, Parks and Boulevards; Dr. William C. Fletcher and Mrs. Maxine Scoville, two-year members of the KCK school board, and Nolen Ellison, trustee for the KCK Junior College board.

Charges of mayhem were filed April 5, against Fred J. Ward, 2452 Benton Blvd., who set a booby trap in his home containing acid, to discourage burglars. A 14-year-old boy suffered the loss of one eye and all of his hair when he entered the Ward home and violated the trap.

The 1967 Freedom Award was presented to Roy Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, by Secretary Dean Rusk at Hotel Waldorf Astoria in New York.

Students at Lincoln university boycotted classes and demonstrated against "poor food conditions" in the school cafeteria, April 6.

Two Kansas City legislators led a boycott of the Democratic Party's 44th annual Jackson Day dinner at Springfield, April 15, because of the appearance there of Sen. Russell Long (D-La.).

In mid-April Rev. Daniel Arthur Holmes, long time civic leader and pastor of Paseo Baptist church, announced his retirement from his pastorate. Rev. Charles J. Briscoe was named to succeed him.

Violence erupted in Nashville, April 10, with 300 college students in a 30-block area reported engaging in acts of destruction against policemen.

Two days after Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hobson moved into their newly-purchased home at 5118 Hardesty, April 1, a series of incidents involving verbal abuse and egg throwing forced them to vacate the house.

The directors of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, in a resolution adopted April 10, labeled the participation of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., in the peace movement "a serious tactical mistake." Repudiated in the same resolution were the anti-war statements of Stokely Carmichael and members of the Student-Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC).

On April 7, the city council adopted a resolution including plans to allocate $500,000 annually for a period of three years for use in urban renewal.

The ADC-U bill, providing state welfare payments to homes with an unemployed father present, was passed by the Missouri House April 10, with little opposition. The measure "died" for lack of action in the Senate before the end of the session.

The community was shocked by the sudden death, April 15, of Mrs. Grace Mayberry, wife of longtime-Kansas City educator, Burt A. Mayberry.

Funeral rites were held April 24 for Miss Capitola Jones, well known children's librarian at the Lincoln branch, whose death was discovered by friends concerned about the librarian's whereabouts.

On April 17, Dr. Robert J. Havighurst repeated his recommendation to the Kansas City, Mo., school board that a middle school be built in the 47th and Paseo area.

A 17-year-old youth was arrested April 26, and charged with the fatal shooting of McCormick J. Holmes, father of 12, who was on duty at the Clark service station, 2436 Troost, at the time of an attempted holdup.

A member of a local pioneer family, Mrs. Mary L. Wherry, died April 26 at age 95. Funeral services were held at Second Baptist church.

500 persons were arrested during April for open housing demonstrations in Louisville, Ky. Leaders of the demonstrations threated to disrupt the Kentucky Derby. The protest was later cancelled as a "demonstration of good faith."

Mrs. Helen Wilkins Claytor, a former Kansas City resident, was named national president of the Young Women's Christian Association for a three-year term, April 29, at the conclusion of the organization's annual convention in Boston.

The Title of World heavyweight champion was taken from Cassius Clay in a decision, April 28 by the World Baxing Association. Reason given for the decision was Clay's refusal to be inducted into the U.S. Army.

MAY

Richard Hatcher, 34-year-old attorney won the Democratic nomination for mayor of Gary, Ind., in that city's primary election May 2.

A selective buying campaign was launched May 8 by the Council for United Action, with jobs in local bakeries as special targets. Agreement was shortly reached between the baking firms and the organization.

Phillipa Schuyler, famed pianist and prodigy, was killed, May 9, in the crash of a helicopter in Da Nang, South Vietnam, where she had been serving as a special war correspondent.

Funeral services were held May 10, at Allen Chapel for Dr. M. C. Lewis, local practicing physician for 46 years, who suffered a sudden and fatal heart attack at his office in the Lincoln building.

Two students were shot on the Jackson College campus in Jackson, Miss., following rock and bottle throwing confrontations with police.

Two captains on the Kansas City, Kas., police force, Boston Daniels and Charles J. Simatic, were promoted to the rank of major May 17.

Violent disturbances at Texas Southern university in Houston reached riot proportions May 17. A policeman was killed and nearly 500 students were jailed. An FBI investigation was initiated two weeks later to probe claims that the rights of TSU students had been violated by policemen handling the disturbance.

About 150 persons, under the sponsorship of the Council for United Action, demonstrated on the afternoon of May 17 in protest against the absence of a traffic light at the intersection of 24th and Paseo. A light was later installed.

Langston Hughes, internationally known poet, author and playwright, died at a New York hospital May 21, following surgery. He was a native of Joplin, Mo..

Turmoil arose at Southeast high school May 21, when Negro students protested the exclusion of Negro girls from the cheerleader squad in a school election. White students staged a walk-out counter protest. A compromise measure, effected through a second election, resulted in the creation of an additional cheerleading squad including a Negro.

On May 24 the board of education approved a plan submitted by Superintendent James A. Hazlett to transport 750 pupils from Central senior and junior high schools to relieve overcrowding. The plan was actuated in September.

The 13th anniversary of the Supreme Court ruling against segregation and education was celebrated at the annual convocation and dinner of the NAACP Legal Defense and Education Fund (LDF), May 17, at the Hotel Americana in New York City.

On May 29, the Supreme Court ruled that California voters violated the federal constitution in 1964 when they nullified the state's open occupancy laws. The court majority found that the California constitutional amendment known as Proposition 14, "involved the state in racial discriminations," and was therefore invalid under the 14th amendment to the U.S. constitution.

JUNE

Guest speaker June 3, at graduation exercises of Rockhurst college was Bishop Harold Perry, first Negro Catholic bishop in the United States in this century.

Prolonged tension between Israel and Arab countries led, on June 4, to bitter fighting. The Arab countries accepted a United Nations ceasefire on June 8, after suffering heavy losses at the hands of Israel.

A total of 3,716 high school seniors were graduated from the 10 senior high schools of Kansas City, June 5-9.

The Council for United Action, on June 7, announced a stop-buying campaign against Vess Cola.

Mrs. June Arva Garth's death, June 8, at Lakeside hospital, followed, by about two months, the death of her brother, Dr. Lon M. Tillmon. Mrs. Garth taught in local schools for 34 years before retiring.

Massachusetts senator Edward Brooke was named the 1967 winner of the Spingarn Medal, annual award presented by the NAACP for outstanding achievement in the field of human endeavor.

Boston police came under fire June 8 for their handling of rioters during four nights of rioting in the predominately Negro Roxbury. Violence there followed a welfare mothers' strike and demonstration.

Mrs. Daisy Trice Adams, principal of Yeager elementary school, retired June 9, ending 37 years' service in Kansas City public schools. She was honored by a special program at the school.

Graduates of Lincoln high school were addressed by Henry W. McGee, member of Lincoln's class of 1927, now postmaster of the city of Chicago. Graduates numbered 180.

The board of education of Kansas City, Kas., was asked in a resolution by the Human Relation Commission of that city to establish quality integrated education as a major goal, and to appoint a special citizens advisory committee to assist in implementing the first request.

The Kansas City Metropolitan Area Talent Search Center, in mid-June, received new funding, amounting to $80,000, from the U. S. Office of Education. The center seeks out, stimulates and counsels talented youth in the area.

Financing for the second phase of Gateway Plaza Homes in Kansas City, received approval from the Federal Housing Authority in early June.

Keys of the city on June 11, were presented to Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, retired president of Morehouse college, by Dr. Earl E. Thomas on behalf of Mayor Ilus W. Davis. Dr. Mays was guest speaker for Homecoming observation of Second Baptist church.

The nation's "Big Four" in civil rights held a secret meeting in Suffern, N. Y., in mid-June to plan the future of the Negro revolution in America. Present were Dr. Martin L. King, Roy Wilkins, Whitney M. Young Jr., and Floyd McKissick.

On June 13, the precedent-setting nomination of Thurgood Marshall to the Supreme Court was announced by President Johnson at a news conference. Marshall had been serving as Solicitor General.

The U. S. Supreme Court, on Monday, June 12, struck down state laws prohibiting marriages between Negroes and whites. The decision came in a case involving Richard P. Loving, a white construction worker, and his Negro-Indian wife, Mildred, fighting the law in the state of Virginia.

By a 3 to 2 vote June 15, the board of education upheld the recommendation of Superintendent James Hazlett against building a "middle school" in the 47th and Paseo area.

During the week of June 16-23 Cincinnati, Ohio became the hottest trouble spot in rioting across the nation. Other hot spots that week included Montgomery, Ala., Tampa, Fla., and Atlanta, Ga.

Cassius Clay, former heavy weight champion, received a $10,000 fine and five-year prison sentence for his earlier refusal to be inducted into the U. S. Army.

Kansas City, Kas., teen-agers demonstrated June 20-21 protesting the lack of swimming facilities and recreation programs. Sites of the protest were the Board of Public Utilities building and City Hall.

On June 16, then Ohio state representative Carl B. Stokes announced his plan to run for the office of mayor of Cleveland for the second time. Stokes had come within roughly 2,000 votes of unseating former mayor Ralph Locher.

Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara on June 22, declared segregated housing off limits for all military personnel.

On June 21 New York police arrested 16 members of the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM) on suspicion of conspiracy to kill top Negro leaders in the U. S.

The Council for United Action called for the resignation of schools superintendent James Hazlett, and for a full investigation of the Kansas City school system by the U. S. Office of Education. It also demanded that the board reconsider its position on the middle school proposal.

A "feud" between County Circuit Clerk Bruce Watkins and Sheriff Arvid Owsley came to light June 16. Watkins accused Owsley of not properly integrating his facilities, and called the county jail a "perfect example of prejudice."

Owsley replied by saying that 22 of 57 jail employees are Negro, and that the reason for Watkins' blast was his refusal to hire a man recommended by Watkins.

In late June, after three weeks of negotiations, the Vess Bottling company agreed to sign a pact with the Council for United Action to hire more Negroes in 20 percent of its jobs at all levels.

On June 29, President Johnson chose the center of the area racked by Philadelphia's 1964 racial riots to sign into law a three-year extension of his Teacher Corps program.

Cities marked by rioting in mid-and late June included Buffalo, N.Y., Atlanta, Ga., Cincinnati, Dayton, Ohio, Boston, Mass., and Tampa, Fla. New and successful approach was organization of the "White Hats" Negro youths who patrolled riot areas, working as liaison between community and civil authorities. Idea originated in Boston, but had greatest success in Tampa.

June 24 marked the beginning of James Meredith's second march through Mississippi. A year earlier, Meredith had been shot from ambush along the same route in his "walk against fear."

The home of a Mobile, Ala., rights leader, J. L. LeFlore, was ripped by a bomb, June 28, with major damage, to the home, but no damage to LeFlore or his wife.

Seven major bond proposals totaling $102 million won approval from Jackson County voters, Tuesday, June 27. Issues included a sports complex, new roads and highways; new General hospital; flood control and parks; and new or modernized facilities for homes for juvenile and the aged.

As a result of articles published in THE CALL, numerous letters were received regarding unfair property insurance in the Negro community. Letters were forwarded to the Missouri superintendent of insurance, and later a federal investigation was launched regarding the problem.

JULY

Major Robert H. Lawrence of Chicago designated by the U.S. Air Force as an astronaut in the U. S. space program. He was named at El Segundo, Cal., to train for a manned space program scheduled for launch in 1970.

Circuit Clerk Bruce Watkins is attacked by Judge Tom J. Stubbs for an error in the circuit clerk's records, but Watkins says the judge's own clerk is at fault. This was another in a series of harrassing incidents Watkins has experienced since taking office in January.

Wentworth Griffin, school board member, introduces a surprise resolution aimed at solving the Middle School dilemma. He proposes abandonment of plans to build an elementary school at 40th and Park and an immediate study of an alternate use of funds allocated for the building to alleviate over-crowding and to promote integration in the Paseo high school area.

The Missouri General Assembly which ended June 30 was marked by many achievements, some failures and recognition of outstanding roles played by the 13 Negro legislators from Kansas City and St. Louis.

Maxey Dupree, 2445 Wabash, wins a Crime Alert award from the Police department for prompt action in preventing a burglary.

Citizens complain about having insurance on their homes and automobiles cancelled. THE CALL starts campaign to have experiences reported to state Division of Insurance.

NAACP opens its annual convention in Boston.

James Meredith ends his "march against fear" through Mississippi on July 4 at Canton, Miss., after 11 days and 150 miles from his start near Hernando where he was shot down from ambush a year ago.

Prince Hall Masons and auxiliaries of Missouri meet in Kansas City July 12-14 at Hotel Muehlebach.

Equal Employment Opportunity law is expanded to include 44,500 more employers.

City of Kansas City, Kas., Mayor McDowell and two police officers are sued for $25,000 by the heirs of Mrs. Olive J. Allen, 70, fatally shot by two policemen on March 29.

Defense Secretary Robert McNamara wages war on bias in housing near military bases by declaring apartments around Andrews Air Force base and Ft. Meade off limits unless they start accepting Negro GI's.

William Zimmer, convicted in the kidnap-slaying of 7-year-old Gladys Johnson of Topeka, files an appeal with the U. S. Supreme Court.

St. Joseph hospital announces expansion plans in its present location at Linwood and Prospect.

Bishop Charles Pleas dies in Kansas City, Kas., at 89.

Kansas Supreme Court rules that teachers may not be transferred to other schools merely to achieve racial balance.

James M. Nabrit Jr., announces his retirement as president Howard university in Washington, D. C.

Thurgood Marshall, nominated to the Supreme Court, is questioned by the Senate Judiciary committee on his attitudes on criminal justice and civil rights. He tells committee he has "no prejudice" against white people.

Benjamin Henly, 55, appointed by the Washington, D. C., Board of Education as acting superintendent of the school system there.

Four Kansas City ministers attended "Operation Breadbasket" meeting in Chicago called by Martin Luther King. SCLC expands to 30 cities its program of obtaining economic power for Negroes by moving them into jobs formerly reserved for whites.

A federal inquiry team of six persons from the U. S. Office of Education arrived in Kansas City July 17 to make a study of the Kansas City school system's compliance with title 6 of the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

Sunday afternoon (July 9) disturbance in Swope Park over the alleged sale of liquor in the park did not reach riot proportions in the opinion of Chief Clarence Kelley. Tear-Gas was used to disperse a crowd which gathered following an arrest.

Vickie Wayne Shockley, police character, shot to death in gangland style.

CORE pickets Safeway Stores when negotiations for better jobs for Negroes failed. After 16 days of picketing, CORE and Safeway signed pact on July 24 agreeing to work together on employment.

Newark, N. J., scene of worst race riots since the Watts disaster of 1965. Violence ended July 17 after five days with 27 dead, 1,200 injured and 2,000 arrested, 1,300 in Newark alone and others in near-by communities. Two thousand National Guardsmen and 300 state troopers ordered into city. Violence sparked by beating of a cab driver by the police.

Plainfield, N. J., policeman stomped, beaten and shot to death with own pistol by bystanders after chasing a young looter and wounding him.

CUA holds mass meeting with three members of federal educational team present.

"The Anderson Platoon," led by Capt. J. B. Anderson of Topeka, Kas., is subject of a French film made in actual combat in Vietnam. Film is shown on nation-wide TV. Anderson became hero when platoon was committed for six weeks in battle of Hoa Hoi.

Black Power conference held in Newark despite tense atmosphere in waks of rioting. Guaranteed annual wage proposed as solution to riots.

H. Rap Brown of SNCC arrested July 26 by FBI at airport in Alexandria, Va., on federal fugitive warrant. Wanted in Maryland for inciting riot in Cambridge on July 24. Freed on $10,000 bond.

Adam Clayton Powell, from Bimini, says "riots are necessary."

Negroes named to Selective Service boards in Missouri.

Riots occur in 80 cities around the nation during July with Detroit writing the bloodiest chapter of violence in American history with 36 deaths, 1,500 wounded and 3,000 arrested. For four days of July 23-26, Detroit resembled a battlefield. Started over routine raid of an after-hours drinking establishment.

President Johnson names an 11-man advisory commission to study the causes of riots and designated July 30 as day of prayer for racial peace. Gov. Otto Kerner of Illinois is named chairman, Mayor John Lindsay of New York, vice chairman. Senator Edward Brooke and Roy Wilkins of NAACP are members.

City Council of Kansas City on July 21 passed a Fair Housing ordinance by 12 to 0 vote. Measure applies to lending agencies as well as to realtors.

Summer Police Cadet Corps formed by 39 Neighborhood Youth Corps to assist city recreation department.

Citizens workshop on the Kansas City racial crisis held at Rockhurst college July 29.

Sarah Rector Campbell Crawford, former millionaire, dies July 22 at General hospital.

Kenton Keith, foreign service officer for U. S. Information Agency, returns to the States after two years in Bagdad, India.

Trouble in Minneapolis starts over a wig.

Negroes head three big post offices with swearing-in of John R. Strachan in New York by Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien. The others: Lislie N. Shaw of Los Angeles and Henry Wadsworth McGee of Chicago.

Dr. Waite H. Madison, long-time physician of Marshall, Mo., died July 4 after a long illness.

The Kansas City, Kas., Human Relations Commission resolves all outstanding complaints against trailer courts in the city.

Monroe J. Cox, Scout leader, dies at 77 in Kansas City, Kas.

C. W. Wingington, former architectural designer in St. Paul, Minn., died in Kansas City July 10.

Atty. Gen. Norman H. Anderson rules that Missouri's state law preventing interracial marriage is unconstitutional in view of the U. S. Supreme Court decision declaring mixed marriages legal.

Claude A. Barnett, founder of the Associated Negro Press and world traveler dies in Chicago, July 31 at the age of 77, ending a journalistic career of 48 years.

F. T. Lane, Urban League specialist in employment and guidance, dies July 28 in Chicago.

AUGUST

Nation records 77th death from rioting since racial violence flared in Newark July 12. Milwaukee, Peoria, Ill., Providence, R.I., and scores of other cities join the list of places hit by disorder.

Milwaukee ends its violence quickly by slapping on a curfew and bringing in crack troops of the National Guard without the delay experienced in Detroit.

Milgram Food chain announces plans to conduct a training school for Negroes seeking jobs.

A. and P. chain names Negro managers for two of its stores, 26th and Brooklyn and 12th and Brooklyn.

Seven Up company files injunction against C.U.A. in effort to halt boycott of firm in dispute over jobs. Suit says CUA demands for 20 per cent of their jobs for Negroes is illegal.

Negro asssitants named in seven Kansas City senior high schools.

New chemical paralyzer called "mace" used in New Haven, Conn., to clear streets during racial violence.

Rap Brown out of jail on $15,000 on New York firearms charge. Wanted in three states.

The Training Corporation of America begins a Ten Cities Training project with Kansas City as one of them. Under a $2.2 million federal grant here, T.C.A. will train 800 persons and is committed to finding jobs for 500 of them. The slogan: "Learn, Baby, Learn."

Two CALL reporters visit the riot-torn areas of Detroit. Say city like a "Bad Dream."

William O. Nixon resigns as supervisor of boys projects, buildings and grounds at the Highview School for Boys at Little Blue, Mo., and moves to Newark, N. J. He served as superintendent of the home for 20 years.

Citizens association endorses the Fair Housing ordinance.

The national NAACP conducts a six-week summer project in Missouri's "Bootheel" section with Roy Wilkins as the keynote speaker July 30 at Charleston, Mo.

Kansas City receives $2,038,000 grant from O.E.O. to establish Miner Housing project.

Racial violence continues in scores of cities.

Stokely Carmichael goes to Cuba, Algiers and to seek vengeance against President Johnson, Secretary Dean Rusk and Secretary McNamara.

Martin Luther King advocates massive civil disobedience, general strikes and demonstrations.

Fidel Castro warns the United States to "lay off" Stokely Carmichael when he returns home or face "a profound repercussion."

Kansas City girl, Therese Sheffield, goes to Halifax, Nova Scotia, to meet her Canadian pen pal.

Rumor that Negro had been killed by a white man leads to violence outbreak in Houston, Texas. Also a flareup in Syracuse, N. Y.

Rev. W. H. White elected president of the Missouri Progressive Missionary Baptist State convention.

Bishop S. L. Greene, senior bishop of the A.M.E. church, dies in Atlanta.

Wilbert R. Howell, retired Kansas City history teacher, dies August 1.

Kansas Citians, under auspices of John Brown Historical Society, spend July 30 at the George Washington Carver Monument in Diamond, Mo.

"Blue Ribbon" commission begins probe of causes of racial riots.

Rocks and firebombs hurled in Wichita.

Dr. Lionel Swan of Detroit new president of National Medical association.

Noisy demonstrations staged in House gallery over defeat of the rat control bill.

Ghana embassy has $47,275 car for sale. It was custom-made for Kwame Nkrumah, deposed president.

Five thousand persons attend rites for Albert Luthull, Nobel peace prize winner of 1960 who fought South African apartheid policies.

Superintendent of Schools Hazlett and Lee V. Swinton of N.A.A.C.P. "debate" Middle School issue at Junior Chamber of Commerce luncheon, but find views are not far apart.

Kansas City Power and Light company hires first Negro apprentice lineman, Jesse Watson.

Dr. Martin Luther King announces settlement with Sealtest corporation in Cleveland, guaranteeing 50 new and upgraded jobs.

Summer festival in Watts has theme, "Dance, Baby, Dance."

Charles E. Standifer drowns in Lake Jacomo.

C.U.A. announces results of four-month drive for jobs on local scene. Many new jobs found.

Sixty-four girls in O.E.O. project, "Motivation and Self-Development for Teen-Age Girls" make trip to Omaha August 15 with project director, Lola Powell, in charge.

Wichita youth help keep order as disturbance ends in northeast section of city.

A Negro, State Rep. A. W. Willis, files for mayor of Memphis.

Detroit police charged with merciless and cold-blooded slayings of three youths during riots. Militants say city officials "did not get message."

Stokely Carmichael, in Cuba, says Negroes should arm and "take a good bead on President Johnson."

Seven days (August 4-11) pass with no violence reported anywhere in nation.

Florida governor crashes "Black Power" rally in Jacksonville and engages in verbal tilt with H. Rap Brown.

Mrs. Ruth Smith resigns as executive director of Paseo branch Y.W.C.A.

Delay trial of 17 Black Power advocates who threatened to kill Roy Wilkins, Whitney Young and other civil rights leaders.

Rap Brown says riots are "dress rehearsal for rebellion."

S. N. Bowser, Topeka mortician, dies August 12.

Mrs. Floria R. Smith, social worker, dies August 5.

Congressman John Conyers of Michigan wins SCLC Rosa Parks Freedom Award for outstanding contribution to civil rights.

Flint, Mich., Mayor Floyd L. McCree threatens to quit as mayor in Open Housing dispute.

Prize-winning CALL newsboys are taken on trip to Bagnell dam and State Capitol in Jefferson City.

Four-year-old boy, Stuart Jones, 3110 Benton, suffocates in old ice box.

The Rev. A. G. Nelson, founder of Central Christian church, dies August 21 after long illness .

Mrs. Fannie Orme dies in Kansas City, Kas., at 87.

National Catholic Conference for Interracial Justice held at Rockhurst college August 17 with 500 persons from all over country attending. Senator Robert Kennedy addresses group via telephone from his home in McNair, Va.

Women sit-in at St. Louis anti-poverty office protesting racial discrimination and remain until all get jobs.

NAACP re-states its opposition to anti-semitism in light of anti-Jewish statements made by Student Non-Violent Coordinanting committee (SNCC). Jewish Labor committee says SNCC has joined Klan and Nazi party as apostles of racism.

Lee Herman Hambrick, 28-year-old mechanic, killed in auto accident on intercity viaduct.

Susana Priotti of Argentina arrives as Central high school exchange student.

Town Fork Creek Rehabilitation project sponsors neighborhood beautification contest to encourage better lawns and gardens.

Flint again defeats open housing ordinance by 4 to 4 vote. Mayor McCree, in hospital with winning vote, announces his resignation.

"Hate Whitey" school, kicked out of church in Nashville, moves to park.

Cassius Clay weds 17-year-old bride, Belinda, also a Black Muslim, on August 19.

SEPTEMBER

Margaret Elizabeth Rusk, daughter of Secretary of State Dean Rusk, weds Guy Gibson Smith, a Negro youth in the Stanford University Memorial Chapel in Stanford, Cal., with the blessings of the Rusk family.

Big crowds hear Evangelist Billy Graham in week-long crusade at the Municipal Stadium. Ethel Waters is part of singing team.

President Lyndon B. Johnson makes surprise visit to Kansas City September 14 to address the International Association of Police Chiefs convention. Decries mob violence. Three Negro police chiefs attend.

A total of 197 file as candidates for September 21 anti-poverty election to select area advisory boards and representatives to Human Resources Corporation board.

Eleven more Kansas City schools open school year with integrated faculties than had them last year.

Specialist Fourth Class Jesse L. Moore, 21-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse C. Moore, killed in Vietnam.

U. S. Senate by vote of 69 to 11 on August 30 confirmed the nomination of Thurgood Marshall to the U.S. Supreme Court.

John Lincoln Rockwell of American Nazi party shot to death August 25 by "one of his very best fighters," John C. Patler.

Petitions signed by 14,274 persons filed with city clerk seeking a referendum vote on the Kansas City, Mo., Fair Housnig ordinance passed by City Council in July.

Eighteen policemen cleared in deaths of seven men in Detroit riots.

Mahalia Jackson, gospel singer, becomes ill in Berlin, Germany, but it is not a heart attack.

Tension grows in Milwaukee over failure of city council to pass an open housing law. Father James E. Groppi leads Youth council of NAACP in nightly marches.

NAACP charges that Mississippi Democratic primary election, in which 21 Negro candidates were defeated, was "rigged."

Drive opens to relocate NAACP headquarters burned in Milwaukee.

Mrs. Ruby Moore of Ruby's Barber shop gives annual picnic for CALL newsboys.

"Rap" Brown pleads with Virginia court not to send him to Maryland to face inciting to riot charge for fear of "legal lynching."

Kansas City CORE chapter issues statement affirming policy of membership to persons without regard to race or color. Contrary to national policy of black members only.

President Johnson appoints Walter E. Washington, 51-year-old former New York and Washington housing executive, as mayor of the District of Columbia.

Thurgood Marshall sworn in associate justice of the U.S. Supreme Court.

Open housing defeated by public vote in Toledo, Ohio.

Adam Clayton Powell left Bimini briefly to appear before a federal grand jury in Washington. He visited his House office while there

Newark cab driver, whose arrest July 12 triggered five nights of rioting, gets 60-day jail sentence.

Milwaukee Catholic archbishop says that Father Groppi will not be moved for his participation in racial demonstrations. Groppi says nightly marches are serving their purpose—upsetting the white man.

Thomas W. Young, publisher of the Norfolk Journal and Guide, Norfolk, Va., dies September 9.

"Rap" Brown jailed without bond in Alexandria, Va., to await extradition to Maryland .

E. St. Louis has wave of disorderly conduct and looting for three straight nights.

Dr. D. C. Pettaway, president of the National Baptist Convention of America for 10 years, resigned at the Indianapolis convention and was succeeded by Dr. J. C. Sams of Jacksonville, Fla.

Formation of the Swope Park National bank is announced with a new building to be erected at 49th and Swope Parkway and with mid-January as the tentative opening date.

Milwaukeans march for 24 straights nights, vowing to continue until an open housing law is passed.

Irish government won't permit visit by Stokely Carmichael. He goes to London, Algeria, and Egypt.

Pcf. Ronald Lockman, Philadelphia soldier, jailed at the Oakland, Cal., Army Base stockade when he refused to go to Vietnam.

Prizes awarded in "Operation Flower Pot" contest.

September 24 is observed by Prince Hall Masons as Eugene King day honoring the retired fireman.

Rev. J. W. L. Underwood, retired pastor of the Pleasant Green Baptist church, died September 24 in Columbia, Mo.

AMS's pledge $10,000 in food to needy families in Mississippi.

A total of 4,483 persons vote in anti-poverty election. New faces on HRC and area boards.

CUA announces first landlord-tenant pact.

Charles O. Finley granted permission to move, Kansas City Athletics to Oakland, Cal., after controversy over several years.

Mass plot to poison policemen, city officials and prominent citizens uncovered in Philadelphia.

Milgram Food Stores holds graduation cermonies for first 15

(Continued on Page 13)

Continued From Page Eight

graduates of its Retail Business Seminar, set up in cooperation with CORE.

Kansas City delegation of nine flies to Denver to observe Health Center there.

Charles L. Scott, a member of Freedom, Inc., and former county park employe, files suit in U.S. district court charging that the 15 courts in the Jackson county circuit court systematically exclude Negroes from positions of supervisory authority or responsibility. Under charges of felonious assault against William L. Landahl, county park director. Scott claims that he cannot get a trial and sues for the appointment of a Negro judge. His petition was denied.

OCTOBER

Eight major religious denominations in the Kansas City area launch Project Equality in which they agree not to patronize firms which discriminate racially in their hiring practices.

Missouri Commission on Human Rights holds public hearing on a complaint of racial discrimination of a Vietnam Marine against the Kernodle's Lakes and Recreation park October 2.

Carl B. Stokes, made political history in Cleveland October 3 by winning the Democratic nomination for mayor, defeating incumbent Mayor Ralph Locher.

Missouri Commission on Human Rights holds public hearing on complaint of discrimination filed against the South Kansas City Recreation club operated by Jim and Paul Kernodle.

Thurgood Marshall takes his seat Monday, Oct. 2, as the first Negro member of the U.S. Supreme Court.

Vietnam war and crime are topics at conference of Missouri Association for Social Welfare at Hotel President in Kansas City October 2, 3 and 4.

Controversy revolves around police slaying of Edward T. Whitelaw, father of eight children.

Todd Pavela, 30-year-old executive director of the Kansas City, Kas., Commission on Human Relations, died suddenly Thursday, Oct. 5.

Omar Goldston, veteran of the Korean war, saved the life of 13-year-old Cathie Frentress who was struck by a car at 59th and Jackson with her leg pinned between the car and a telephone pole. Goldston administered first aid and made a tourniquet to stop the flow of blood until an ambulance arrived. He was credited with saving the girl's life although she lost her leg. Goldston himself suffers from frost-bitten feet and the community rallied to give financial assistance both to him and to Cathie.

Dr. Samuel U. Rodgers is named director of the new Neighborhood Health Center to be opened in 1968 under a two-million-dollar O.E.O. grant.

The U.S. Supreme Court ordered six southern states to get to work immediately and integrate their public school systems so that there are no Negro schools and no white schools—just schools. The directive was issued to: Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi and Texas.

Police swing sticks at Milwaukee demonstrators on the 42nd consecutive night of marching. Dick Gregory arrested.

Funeral rites were held October 11 for Mrs. Beatrice Turner, wife of Dr. L. W. Turner.

Dynamite blasts home of Dr. William T. Bush, executive dean of Tougaloo college in Jackson, Miss.

Changes in food service and in rules and regulations made at Lincoln university following student protests last spring.

Charles Scott fined $100 in assault case by Judge Tom J. Stubbs of circuit court. Harold L. Holliday withdraws as his attorney.

George Wallace of Alabama speaks at UMKC. Young Republicans pass out literature urging support of Republican party.

Vice President Hubert Humphrey addresses Future Farmers of America in Kansas City.

Ebenezer AME church host to 86th annual session of the Northeast Missouri conference of the AME church.

Two girls admit setting brush fires near Simi Valley high school near Los Angeles.

Three young men arrested on charges of robbing Blue Hills Bank of Commerce of over $7,000.

SNCC attacks jailing of Rap Brown in Virginia, saying his detention is putting the organization out of business as it relies on funds secured through his speech-making.

Secretary McNamara tells group of business leaders of Washington that the Department of Defense has been leader in eliminating racial discrimination.

Rev. H. Calvin McMillan, pastor of the Allen Chapel AME church for the last three years, assigned as pastor of the Ebenezer AME church in Stockton, Cal.

Mrs. Rice, wife of the Rev. James Donald Rice of Hot Springs, Ark., formerly of Western Bible college, dies.

Guion S. Bluford, former Kansas Citian, dies suddenly in Philadelphia, Pa.

James S. Hosford, Western Electric official, named chairman of Chamber of Commerce minority job committee.

John Hope Franklin, Chicago U. history professor, presides at first national meeting of the American Studies association of which he is president.

Missouri State Conference of NAACP Branches holds annual meeting in Kennett, Mo., wih Harold L. Holliday presiding.

Holliday in keynote speech calls for unity among civil rights groups in Missouri.

Meridian, Miss., jury deadlocked in conspiracy trial of 18 Ku Klux Klansmen charged in slaying of three civil rights workers but U.S. District Judge Harold Cox urges them to keep trying.

Lee Vertis Swinton, attorney and president of the Metropolitan Council of the NAACP, appointed assistant counselor at Jackson county courthouse.

Mrs. Zula G. Butler, 74, veteran NAACP and Republican worker, dies October 19 in fall from ladder while cutting vines around her porch.

Kansas City fans say bitterly that Charles O. Finley "did not play fair" with them in moving Kansas City Athletics from city.

Dr. Robert Ellis named dental director of new Neighborhood Health Center.

Ernst L. Gayden, Kansas City, Kas., travel promoter, is guest of Trans World Airlines on trip to Africa.

American League owners agree that Kansas City will have a new franchise baseball team in 1969 with move of K. C. Athletics to Oakland.

Civil rights groups of Kansas City, Kas., succeed in defeating 17-million-dollar bond issue in Kanas City, Kas., on October 31.

Violence hits Chicago suburban high schools. Students dismissed wholesale and policemen stand guard to keep down disorder.

Brown's Center at 1705 E. 12th St. sets example in community sharing and devotion.

Mississippi jury October 20 finds seven of 18 men guilty in 1964 slaying of three civil rights workers.

Negro man and white woman of Miami, Fla., initiate action against a Florida law forbidding interracial marriages.

Richard E. Risk, acting director of the Missouri Commission on Human Rights, makes report for Governor Warren E. Hearnes on recent study of Negroes in the Selective Service System of the state. Risk reported that 13 Negroes are now serving on draft boards compared to only one last year.

National Advisory Panel on Insurance in Riot-Affected Areas holds open hearings in Washington Noverber 8-9 on discrimination against persons living in ghettos.

Judde Harold Cox allows bond for two Klansmen but warns that if any bombings occur anywhere in his district they would be jailed immediately. Mississippi announces that it will try 12 more Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Rep. James P. Troupe, St. Louis legislator, becomes first candidate to file to run for Congressman from the first district, challenging Rep. Frank Karsten for his seat in the House.

Dr. Martin Luther King calls for "camp in" in Washington, D.C. to prod Congress into action on civil right and anti-poverty programs.

Mrs. Lola Powell, director of anti-poverty project, "Motivation and Self-Development of Teen-Age Girls," dies suddenly October 28 of heart attack.

NOVEMBER

Council on United Action (CUA) and Seven-Up company reach agreement and company withdraws its lawsuit. Firm agrees to terms set down by CUA regarding employment of Negroes.

Mr. and Mrs. James Richardson held in Arcadia, Fla., on charges of killing their seven children by poisoning.

Mrs. Lillian Orme named principal of the new elementary school being erected at 3400 Highland.

CUA holds annual convention November 3 with Franklin Florence, minister and civil rights leader of Rochester, N.Y., as the speaker. Rev. A. L. Johnson elected president succeeding the Rev. O. D. Carson. Saul Alinsky attends.

National Guardsmen withdraw from Grambling college campus in Louisiana after disturbance among students calms down.

Junior Chamber of Commerce makes statement on the Middle School. Favors quality, integrated education but has reservations on use of Paseo and 47th street site.

Police department tries using helicopters to help reduce crime in city.

The Senate Permanent Investigations sub-committee reports that 130 persons were killed and 3,623 wounded in riots and other major racial disturbances in the United States since 1965. Property damage was estimated at 210.6 million.

Human Resources Corporation sets up "Council of the Elected" made up of all 99 elected representatives from area advisory boards in the nine poverty areas.

Kansas City school district receives grant from federal government under Title 4 of the Civil Rights act to develop a course in "Bi Racial Living."

Dr. Martin Luther King and three other civil rights leaders surrender to police authorities in Birmingham, Ala., and serve five-day sentences in jail on contempt of court charges growing out of the bloody demonstrations in Birmingham in 1963. The U.S. Supreme Court upheld their convictions.

Roy Wilkkins, NAACP head, gets "red carpet" treatment on first trip to Alaska.

President Johnson names Arthur Christopher Jr. as an associate judge of the Court of General Sessions of the District of Columbia.

Senate Ethics committee reopens investigation of charges of wrong-doing lodged against Missouri Senator Edward V. Long.

Rev. Robert Phillips of Stockton, Cal., arrives to be new pastor of the Allen Chapel AME church.

Supt. O. L. Plucker of the Kansas City, Kas., schools presents a new statement of policy to the board of education.

CORE reports progress in its program to find more and better jobs for Negroes.

Formal contracts between the Human Resources Corporation and the City Health department were signed November 3, paving the way for a start on the new Comprehensive Neighborhood Health Center to be established at the Wayne Miner project.

Urban League of Kansas City observes Equal Opportunity Day on November 20 with seminar on equal employment at the Wayne Miner auditorium. More than 200 representatives of business and industry attended.

Carl B. Stokes elected November 7 as the mayor of Cleveland, Ohio, first Negro ever elected head of a major city in the United States.

Richard G. Hatcher, attorney, wins election as mayor of Gary, Ind., overcoming prejudice and opposition in his own Democratic party.

Dr. Rufus Clement, president of Atlanta university, Atlanta, Ga., dies suddenly in his hotel room in New York.

Mrs. Louise Day Hicks, opponent of racial integration, defeated for mayor of Boston by Kevin H. White, Irishman of the John Kennedy mold.

Fair housing law passes in Topeka.

Disturbance in cafeteria at Lincoln university, Jefferson City, results in suspension of 10 students.

Mother of Jesse L. Moore, Kansas City boy killed in Vietnam, presented the bronze star awarded posthumously to her son.

AME churches of Fifth Episcopal district, under leadership of Bishop H. Thomas Primm, send trucks filled with food and a check for $5,000 to needy families in Mississippi. The van moved across the states from California to Missouri gathering items for the Mississippians.

Dr. Jame R. Lawson named as new president of Fisk university in Nashville. He had been chairman of the department of physics at Fisk since 1957.

Mrs. Antronette Brown appointed head of public school's Adult Basic Education program.

Three American soldiers released from Viet Cong prison camp and return home. Two are Negroes.

Army Court martial at San Francisco convicts Pvt. Ronald Lockman of Philadelphia for refusing to go to Vietnam and sentences him to two and a half years at hard labor, dishonorable discharge and forfeiture of pay.

Mrs. Josephine A. Moore, wife of Dr. Benjamin Moore, dentist, dies November 11 while on duty as a nurse at General hospital.

Three Central high school students named finalists in fourth National Achievement Scholarship program for outstanding Negro students.

Riot closes Central state college in Wilberforce, Ohio, until after the Thanksgiving holidays. Ninety-four arrested in campus disorders.

Kansas City named as one of nation's 63 "Model Cities."

H. W. Sewing named president of the Douglass State bank succeeding Edward E. Tillmon who had been president since January, 1965.

Home of Rev. Allen Johnson, Negro clergyman in Mississippi, bombed at Laurel, Miss. No injuries.

Police officer shoots and kills Willis Sanders, accused in the 1966 slaying of Roy Barker, grocer, following a holdup of the S. and R. market at 1601 E. 31st St.

Disturbance at Central high school for two days with fights and bottle throwing. No explanation for incident.

Two thousand students demonstrated at Philadelphia high school.

Break ground November 10 for new Swope Parkway National bank, 49th and Swope Parkway.

Miss Gertrude Gorman, NAACP field director from New York, visits Kansas branches in area.

Seventeen injured in rampage in two areas of Chicago, the near North side and South side.

Clifford M. Spottsville, former assistant United States attorney sworn in November 20 as first assistant prosecuting attorney for Jackson county.

Bomb rips home of Rabbi Perry E. Nussbaum in Jackson, Miss.

Home of Dean H. Hadley Hartshorn of Texas Southern university target of Molotov cocktails at Houston.

Re-count of votes in Cleveland gives Carl Stokes 53 extra votes to make his victory solid.

Joseph Thornton Smith, 55, former Kansas Citian, dies in Sacramento, Cal.

Figures released by Board of Education reveal Negro students form 44.8 per cent of the public school population.

Sammy Davis and Mai Britt agree to trial separation after seven years of marriage.

Prince Hall Masons lay cornerstone at Church of the Living God, 2011 Vine St.

Federal Trade Commission warn of bogus insurance schemes which exploit parents of GI's.

Two Lincoln university students from St. Louis sue for reinstatement when appeal to board of currators fails.

Primitivo Garcia, young Mexican youth dies of wounds received when he went to the rescue of his teacher who was being attacked by six young hoodlums. Garcia, who was studying to become a citizen of the United States, was declared a hero by Kansas Citians who raised a fund for his family.

Mrs. Anna Marie Garrett, popular young speech correctionist in the Kansas City, Mo., public school system, mystifies friends by committing suicide by leaping into Kaw river from intercity viaduct.

DECEMBER

CUA launches war on General Motors Corporation, charging discrimination in supervisory positions.

Anti-poverty projects face curtailment unless Congress passes bill allocating funds.

Board of Education names new elementary school at 3400 Highland for Chester A. Franklin, founder of THE CALL.

Rabbi Perry Nussbaum urges "serious self-examination" by all Mississippians and charges that public apathy and silence are responsible for the reign of terror in the state.

Battle for Hill 875 in Vietnam goes down as one of great military victories in history.

Dr. Harry Groves, president of Central State university in Wilberforce, Ohio, announces he will resign in the spring in the wake of violent disturbances and reports of organized plots to kill him.

CUA stages one-hour protest demonstration in downtown area demanding white collar jobs with General Motors.

Mrs. Anna Mae Alford, practical nurse, dies December 3.

Father who lost son in Detroit riots runs amuck with a rifle, holding members of his family as hostages. They were finally released unharmed.

Police of Paris, France, reverse an earier ruling and permit Stokely Camichael to visit there.

Francis Cardinal Spellman, America's leading Roman Catholic churchman, dies in New York December 2 at 78.

Joseph Peach, 76-year-old Kansas City, Kansan dies in fire at his home, 2721 N. Allis. His wife, convalescing from a recent illness, overcome by smoke and treated at hospital.

Eugene J. Callahan, executive director of the Chicago Conference on Religion and Race, speaks at open discussion on fair housing sponsored by Catholic Interracial Council.

Governor Warren E. Hearnes of Missouri says that he will ask the special session of Missouri legislature in January to consider ADC-U bill permitting Aid to Dependent Children and payments in homes where fathers cannot get employment.

Paseo YWCA holds annual Winter Carnival.

Article in Catholic Reporter reveals wide-spread practice of discrimination by private clubs in Kansas City against Jews and Negroes. Civic leaders and civil rights groups decry the practice.

Equal Employment Opportunity section published by THE CALL featuring firms in area hiring and promoting Negroes on an equal basis as other workers.

Neighborhood Health Center opens administrative offices at Wayne Miner Courts as prelude to opening of center in the spring.

U.S. Supreme Court agrees to hear St. Louis case testing 1866 law involving discrimination in housing. The case was initiated by Joseph Lee Jones who was denied a unit in a housing development in the suburbs.

Dr. Ruth Ann Hargrave, teacher at Central State university in Ohio, found beaten to death in her home.

Lerone Bennett Jr., author, lecturer and magazine editor, speaks in Kansas City, Kas., under auspices of Progress, Inc.

Christmas lighting contest held in inner city areas.

Dr. King says he will lead a march of the poor to Washington in the spring.

Superintendent James A. Hazlett proposes the "cluster" plan for a group of elementary schools here but meets opposition from parents in Nelson, Willard and Troost schools. Plan is adaption of the Princeton plan which pairs schools to combat de facto segregation.

Red Cross presents award to Omar Goldston for his action in saving the life of Cathie Frentress. October car victim.

Mrs. Katie Bell Bunton, 50, held as hostage while a man robs Commerce Trust Motor bank.

Citizens Assembly of Poverty area No. 6 announces pilot project called NIP (Neighborhood Improvement Project) designed to encourage and assist property owners, residents and merchants to improve their property and make it more attractive.

Sixteen students hurt in brawl at Trenton, N.J., school.

House un-American Activities Committee reports less than 17,000 members in the Ku Klux Klan.

Grand jury indicts six youths in slaying of Primitivo Garcia. Two of the six who are juveniles will be tried as adults upon the ruling of Juvenile Court Judge Alvin C. Randall.

Detroit ends the year of 1967 with scars from summer riots and still seeking answers.

Supreme Court to rule on "Freedom Choice" plan in de-segregating schools.

HRC Centers hold Open House in observance of Human Rights week.

Missouri Commission on Human Rights to file amicus curiae brief in Jones housing case now before the U.S. Supreme Court.

President Johnson pushes for State Streets and Crime Control Act, and calls it urgent business for new Congress.

Kansas City CORE goes on record for integrated units. Alvin Brooks reelected chairman for another year, defeating "black power" faction.

Mrs. Dorothy Mann, O.E.O. official from Washington, visits with officials of Health Center and expresses pleasure over plans for projects.

Hospital Planning Council reverses itself and gives approval to the Wheatley-Provident hospital replacement program, first step in applying for federal Hill-Burton funds.

Harold Watson of Atlanta Life Insurance company dies suddenly December 14 of a heart attack.

Edward E. Tillmon, former president of the Douglass State bank, accept position as executive vice president of the Bank of Finance in Los Angeles, Cal.

Kansas Citians go to polls on December 12 and vote three to one to retain four-year terms for the mayor, city councilmen and municipal judges. Charter amendment proposed by the Fire-fighters union to reduce terms to two years defeated 32,963 to 11,275.

Bishop R. R. Wright Jr., senior bishop of the AME church, dies in Philadelphia December 11 at the age of 89.

Start fund for Omar Golston, hero who is unemployed because of frost-bitten feet suffered during the Korean war.

Major Robert Lawrence, first Negro picked for astronaut training, killed December 8 when his Jet plane crashed during a routine training flight at Edwards Air Force base in California.

Stokely Carmichael, Black Power advocate, returned to United States December 11 and was met in New York by federal marshals who confiscated his passport for traveling in Communist countries without authorization.

Louisville, Ky., passes open housing ordinance with enforcement provisions.

Double tragedy strikes McWashington home in Bonner Springs, Kas., when two sons of Mrs. Smith McWashington were killed in an auto accident.

Isaac Smith, 81, dies December 14, just three weeks after death of his oldest son, Joseph Thornton.

Thomas Bartlett, resident here 50 years, dies.

Death to Elmer Shoate, deacon at Bethlehem Baptist church, on December 18.

Folk singer Jimmie Rodgers suffered a near-fatal head injury in Los Angeles when he fell to the ground while being questioned by an off-duty policeman. Mysterious circumstances cause nation-wide discussion.

Arthur Jackson elected secretary-treasurer of the Musicians Protective union local No. 627, replacing Carroll L. Jenkins, who held post for nine years.

All four Negroes resign from Wichita Human Resources board saying they would not serve because the board was made up of persons who had failed to accomplish anything in the past in the area of race relations.

Arthur Pollard, trash hauling man, plays Santa Claus and gives away $1,000 worth of used furniture, dishes and household items.

Human Resources Corporation requests $1,392,767 in anti-poverty funds for the continuation of Community Action programs here.

Council on Religion and Race forms "Speakers Bureau" to discuss issue of open housing in preparation for public vote on Kansas City's fair housing ordinance sometime in 1968.

Anti-poverty bill passes as big victory for President Johnson.

Congress passes Social Security bill but strips welfare mothers of right to remain at home and care for children. The bill permits states to force all ADC mothers to work and feezes the number of children in each state eligible for welfare funds.

Vandals take Christmas tree lights from invalid's yard and tear down Christmas tree installed by Project NIP at 25th and Indiana playground.

Adam Clayton Powell breaks long silence and issues statement from Bimini denouncing legislation aimed at assuring his Harlem constituents of a place to seek help in Washington while his seat is vacant.

City Council considers installing trash collection service with $1.60 monthly charge to each family unit.

Mrs. Maggie McConnell, public school teacher and former YWCA staff worker, dies December 10.

Leon M. Despres, Chicago alderman, shot by would-be robbers as he walked from his office to his home near the University of Chicago. Mayor Richard Daley threatens to hire "5,000 more policemen."

John Factor, wealthy self-made businessman and philanthropist in Los Angeles, gives $20,000 to 1,000 needy families in Mississippi for Christmas.

President Johnson visits troops in South Vietnam and pins medals on wounded.

Al Zollar, real estate man, shot and killed by his wife, Mrs. Dorothy Zollar.

Seven Ku Klux Klansmen, found guilty of conspiring to kill three civil rights workers in 1964, received sentences ranging from three to 10 years from U.S. District Judge Harold Cox at Jackson, Miss.

Under new national plan involving the National Guard, the two units of the Missouri National Guard at 18th and Highland will go out of existence in January as independent units and absorbed into other units. Citizens view move with mixed reactions as the two units, once all-Negro, are now the most integrated units in the state.

FBI looks into "Black Power," article appearing in the current issue of the SNCC newsletter.

Otis Redding, 26-year-old recording artist, killed December 10 in airplane crash near Madison, Wis.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.